

Obtaining Written Permission

MedEdPORTAL requires proof of permission to include copyrighted materials in submissions. We are unable to accept external documents or statements (e.g., terms of use) as adequate permission for the use of third-party content, even stock images, and require that you use this MedEdPORTAL Third-Party Content Permission Form to meet this requirement.

However, in lieu of a signed permission form, we will accept an official statement by the owner of the material/company name that identifies the material by name and explicitly gives the author(s) permission to use the material in their submission. The following statement should be used:

"I, ___(representative of X company)___, grant (Author Name) permission to use (Name of Material) in a submission to MedEdPORTAL, an online, open-access journal, which will be published under a ___(X Creative Commons license selected for submission)___."

If neither the permission form or email template option above are feasible, please remove the material from your submission. See also the Replacing Copyrighted Materials policy.

MedEdPORTAL Third-Party Content Permission Form

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to obtain written permission to include your copyrighted material in a teaching resource I have created and submitted to MedEdPORTAL® (www.mededportal.org), an open-access journal published by the Association of American Medical Colleges in partnership with the American Dental Education Association. MedEdPORTAL® was designed to promote education collaboration by facilitating the open exchange of peer-reviewed teaching resources such as tutorials, virtual patients, simulation cases, lab guides, videos podcasts, assessment tools, etc. While MedEdPORTAL's® primary audiences include health educators and learners around the globe, it is open and available for free to the general public. Users can access quality, peer-reviewed teaching material and assessment tools in both the basic and clinical sciences in medicine and oral health.

I request permission to include the following materials ("Materials") in my MedEdPORTAL® submission:
